Question 1
What is a risk? 1 / 1 point

A weakness that can be exploited by a threat
The practice of labeling assets based on sensitivity and importance to an organization
Any circumstance or event that can negatively impact assets
Anything that can impact the confidentiality, integrity, or availability of an asset
Correct
A risk is anything that can impact the confidentiality, integrity, or availability of an asset.

Question 2
A security professional discovers a rogue access point on their company WiFi that is not managed by the networking team. The rogue device is altering and deleting sensitive records without authorization. What is the rogue device in this scenario? 1 / 1 point

Risk
Vulnerability
Asset
Threat

Correct
The rogue device is a threat because it is negatively impacting the company's assets.

Question 3
A product team is storing customer survey data for a new project in a cloud drive. The data is only accessible to product team members while the project is in development. What is this data's asset type? 1 / 1 point

Customer data
Public
Confidential
Internal demo
Correct
This data is confidential. Confidential assets such as this customer survey data can only be accessed by those working on a specific project.

Question 4
What is the practice of labeling assets based on sensitivity and importance to an organization? 1 / 1 point
Asset restriction
Asset inventory
Asset management
Asset classification

Correct
Asset classification is the practice of labeling assets based on sensitivity and importance to an organization.